THE AGREEMENT YOU SIGNED YEARS AGO PROBABLY HASN'T BEEN TOUCHED SINCE.

NAR's 2026 Member Profile: six years is the median tenure with a current firm.

A DEAL THAT RENEWS ITSELF WITH NO CONVERSATION IS THE BEST DEAL THEY COULD GET.

NAR's 2026 Member Profile, released June 2026, puts the median agent's tenure with their current firm at six years. In that span, production changes and the market changes, but for most agents the agreement itself never gets reopened. Nobody is required to revisit it, so for most agents, it just doesn't happen.

WHAT TO DO BEFORE YEAR SEVEN STARTS:

1 Pull your original agreement and read it again, today.

Not from memory. The actual document.

2 Multiply your split and your fees by the years you've been there.

That's the real cost of a deal nobody has revisited.

3 Ask one direct question at your next office meeting: has anything about my deal changed since I signed it?

Most agents have never asked it.

THE TAKEAWAY

KNOW WHAT SIX YEARS ACTUALLY BOUGHT YOU, BEFORE YEAR SEVEN STARTS.

Read the deal again. Then decide if it still earns the renewal.
