

D.J. PARIS

SHE GREW HER BUSINESS 74% A YEAR. FOR FIVE YEARS.

And she barely spent a dollar on leads. The whole system is one habit.

NO ZILLOW SPEND. NO PAID LEADS.

Just a small gift, hand-delivered to a past client, with no ask attached. That is the entire engine.

IT IS CALLED A POP-BY.

A low-cost gift you drop off in person to someone in your sphere. No pitch. No "know anyone selling." Just a hello.

IT IS A RELATIONSHIP, NOT A PORTAL.

Paid leads rent you a stranger's attention once. A pop-by keeps you top of mind with people who already trust you.

THE RHYTHM THAT MAKES IT COMPOUND.

Same people, four times a year.
Consistency is the whole trick.
One drop-off is a nice gesture.
Four is a system.

KEEP THE GIFT SMALL AND SEASONAL.

Coffee on the way to a showing.
A pumpkin on the porch in October. A school-supply pack in August. Thoughtful beats expensive.
