A REAL ESTATE CEO SET A PUBLIC GOAL: THIRTY LISTING APPOINTMENTS IN THIRTY DAYS, ZERO BOUGHT LEADS.

Every one of them came out of his own contact list.

BOUGHT LEADS DON'T KNOW YOU. YOUR PAST CLIENTS ALREADY DO.

Ryan Young built one of Ohio's top real estate teams. In March 2024 he posted a goal on Instagram: thirty listing appointments in thirty days, all from his own contact list, no bought leads. HousingWire reported the challenge he built around it grew from about five hundred participants to five thousand within about a week of its 2025 relaunch. A stranger on a bought lead list has never heard your name. A past client already picked up the phone for you once, which is the entire head start a bought lead doesn't come with.

WHAT YOU DO DIFFERENTLY THIS WEEK:

1 Pull your last five years of past clients.
They already know you and already picked up once.

2 Call five of them today.
Ask how the house is holding up. Nothing more.

3 Ask every one if they know somebody thinking about moving.
That is where most referrals start, not from a bought list.

4 Only shop for a bought lead list after that call list is empty.
Not before.

THE TAKEAWAY

YOUR OWN CONTACT LIST IS THE CHEAPEST LEAD LIST YOU'LL EVER OWN.

Call five people before you buy a single name.
