KEEPING IT REAL

20.8% OF LISTINGS JUST CUT PRICE.

The highest September reading on record.

D.J. Paris
Keeping It Real Podcast

“

MORE INVENTORY. MORE PRICE CUTS. PENDING SALES JUST FELL FOR THE SECOND MONTH STRAIGHT.

Realtor.com's September report: active listings are now within 9.1% of pre-pandemic levels, the closest in this entire recovery.

03 / 05

SELLERS AREN'T CUTTING PRICE BECAUSE THEY GOT UNLUCKY.

Realtor.com's September 2026 housing report, from chief economist Danielle Hale and senior economist Jake Krimmel: 20.8% of active listings had a price reduction, up 0.9 points from a year ago and the highest September share on record. Active inventory rose 5.4% year over year to over 1,161,000 homes, closing the gap to pre-pandemic inventory to 9.1%. Homes going under contract fell 4.1% year over year, the steepest annual drop since March 2025. Every seller in a given neighborhood got more competition at the same time rates above 7% thinned the buyer pool. That's a market condition, not a pricing mistake, and it changes what the listing conversation has to cover this month.

WHAT YOU DO DIFFERENTLY THIS MONTH:

1 Launch at the number that survives the first two weeks.
With one in five listings already

2 Show the seller the competing inventory, not just the comps.
Comps are closed sales.

3 Build the pre-launch plan before the sign goes in the yard.
Photos, staging, and the first

4 Lead with the pending-sales drop, not the listing count.
Pending sales fell for the second cutting, a seller who tests high this month joins that number instead of staying out of it. Competing inventory is what a buyer is cross-shopping today, and there's 5.4% more of it than a year ago. two weeks of marketing matter more with more listings fighting for the same buyer pool. straight month. That's the buyer-side half of the story a seller needs before they pick a number.

THE TAKEAWAY

PULL YOUR AREA'S ACTIVE LISTING COUNT BEFORE YOUR NEXT LISTING APPOINTMENT.

One in five sellers nationally already had to cut. Walk in already knowing why.

D.J. Paris
Keeping It Real Podcast